

LMJS Special offers for Total Ice Therapy

Total Ice Therapy, www.totalicetherapy.com, is an ice wrap that provides a cold therapy solution for injuries to athletes and non-athletes alike. These wraps are used by physical therapists, athletes, post-surgical patients, and every day people who become injured. TOTAL ICE THERAPY uses an ice bag with a screw top combined with a neoprene wrap to provide firm, consistent pressure to maximize healing.

Dr. Peter Lowenberg is the owner/inventor of this product and is also a Chiropractor whose office is conveniently located in the Montclair District of Oakland. He provides mainstream chiropractic treatment. Dr. Lowenberg graduated from UC Berkeley with a degree in physical education and public health. He did post-graduate work in exercise physiology.
